"Shout out to the Varsity Boys ball hockey team for making it all the way to the championship game. After a big win in the semi-finals against GBDSS, the team lost the final game to Banting. Regardless of the outcome, coaches Tram, McGladdery and Zervos are proud of the energy and commitment shown by everyone. The boys represented NPSS with class and grace, keeping our composure on the court and showing great sportsmanship. Special shout out to Nicky Gaffiero for his excellent work in net, and to the leadership group of Keegan McVey, Colton Sargent, Austin Claughton and Sam Elliott. Great job boys!"

A reminder to all Girls Rugby players of our practices today and tomorrow at lunch.
